

JUST CAN'T STAND US

Every time that we seemed to be good
That was you
Everything you said I understood
That was you

But telling me that we need a shrink
That's fucking pushing it to the brink
I'd rather go on complaining
Than get some weatherman to tell me it's raining

Remember the time when I couldn't stop crying
That was you
But the one that smiled, and kept on lying
That was you

If your only problem is me
It's you who needs therapy
No one gets inside my head
Don't need no coroner telling me we're dead

Just can't stand us
Anymore

The spite and the hate, that cut like a knife
That was you
Yet the only thing I ever wanted in life
That was you

Counseling won't get you shit
Save your money, call it quits
Everything about us sucked
Don't need no Jesus telling me we're fucked

Just can't stand us
Anymore
